

Dear Lectors, Saludos a las y los lectores,

We missed you at our 1st Scriptural Ministry Reader's Workshop! But no worries another will be organized in early Fall to continue to expand and develop this important ministry, equal to the preaching moment.

Please take a few minutes to do the following:

First read through the bullet points. They contain your role and commitment. This allows for better clarity, flow, elegant performance and rotative leadership. Amen!

Secondly, if you are in agreement, please look at the enclosed document, the schedule for the readings. We are still in need of Lectors to complete the schedule for the next two months. "N/A" denotes the need for additional readers. Find your possible availability and proceed to email myself and Qadry your possible dates. We will recompile and resend to all.

¡Gracias, Thanks!

Reading Scripture Commitment:

- ✚ To practice reading your text a few times before Sunday.
- ✚ To call your “reading partner” during the week prior and practice once or twice until comfortable. Offer each other feedback, especially, positive ones!
- ✚ To check email communication frequently during your reading week in order to response promptly to your partner and Scriptural Ministry information.
- ✚ To get to church by 10:15am on your reading day to rehearse in person with your “reading partner,” and mic check. This is good for the entire Worship coordination and integrity.
- ✚ To stay in communication with your partner if you are running late by text or calls.
- ✚ Assist skill-building workshops
- ✚ To know and be prompt to move to position in order to read when is your turn.
- ✚ To find a substitute, call someone in the Biblical Reading Ministry list, if you are unable to read, and follow up until you can find someone. Also communicate with Rev Jeanette, Paul Vasile and Stephanie Wilson for updates.
- ✚ To repeat the above as often as necessary!
- ✚ To praise God, have fun, be proud! And ¡Alabar a Dios! Praise our Maker!
